

Directorate of Professional Standards

The mission of the Directorate of Professional Standards is to manage the development of the Police organization by supervising the implementation of strategies and acts; determine and monitor the performance standards for the Police personnel; monitor the implementation of international Police projects; apply Police cooperation agreements; provide legal assistance to State Police; and monitor the disciplinary processes.